Exelon Corporation Reaffirms 2002 Outlook; Announces Investor Conference

Chicago (June 10, 2002) - Exelon Corporation (NYSE: EXC) today reaffirmed the company's outlook for 2002 operating earnings between $4.55 and $4.85 per share. Chairman and CEO John W. Rowe stated that, "Based on preliminary results through May, our year-to-date financial results are where we set out to be at the start of the year. Our Cost Management Initiative supported strong results in April and May, which helped offset the impact of mild weather and low power prices. Exelon's officers and employees are focused on living up to our commitments to our customers and investors."

Exelon Corporation also announced that it will host an investor conference on Thursday, June 20, 2002, 7:00 a.m. CDT. The conference will be webcast live and may be accessed at <http://investor.exeloncorp.com/medialist.cfm>.
