Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Except for the historical information contained herein, certain of the matters discussed in this communication constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as “may,” “will,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “target,” “forecast,” and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions, or events identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger of Exelon Corporation (Exelon) and Constellation Energy Group, Inc. (Constellation), integration plans and expected synergies, the expected timing of completion of the transaction, anticipated future financial and operating performance and results, including estimates for growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Exelon and Constellation, as applicable. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this communication regarding the proposed merger. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Exelon or Constellation could interfere with the merger; (5) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (6) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies’ expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger; (10) the companies may not realize the values expected to be obtained for properties expected or required to be divested; (11) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (12) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors.

Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of Exelon, Constellation or the combined company. Discussions of some of these other important factors and assumptions are contained in Exelon's and Constellation's respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, including: (1) Exelon's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K in (a) ITEM 1A.   - Exelon’s Power Team will be combined with Constellation’s wholesale and retail business under the Constellation brand and will be headquartered in Baltimore
  - Constellation and Exelon’s renewable energy business headquartered in Baltimore in new or substantially refurbished office center
  - BGE maintains independent operations headquartered in Baltimore
  - No involuntary merger-related job reductions at BGE for two years after close
- Supports Maryland’s economic development and clean energy infrastructure
  - $4 million to support EmPower Maryland Energy Efficiency Act
  - 25 MWs of renewable energy development in Maryland (>$50 million)
  - Charitable contributions maintained for at least 10 years (~$10 million per year)
- Provides direct benefits to BGE customers
  - $15 million commitment for the Maryland PSC to use directly for the benefit of BGE customers
  - Over $110 million to BGE residential customers from $100 one-time rate credit

We will bring direct benefits to the State of Maryland, the City of Baltimore and BGE customers. Total direct investment in excess of $250 million.

Current Merger Status

Exelon  Constellation Energy

Exelon Has Strengthened its Merger Proposal

---

- Additional safeguards for BGE
  - New governance measures to ensure BGE is locally managed and has the resources to ensure safe, reliable delivery of power
  - Ring-fencing measures to stay in place
  - MPSC to receive notification on a wide range of financial metrics, to monitor BGE's financial health
- Resolution of market power concerns
  - Settlement with PJM market monitor limits universe of potential buyers of coal plants slated for divestiture, provides assurances on how merged company will bid into PJM

“BGE will remain locally managed, will have the same accountability to the PSC as it currently does, and will have a strong voice at Exelon. As part of Exelon, BGE will continue to provide safe and reliable service to its customers at just and reasonable rates” – Ken DeFontes, BGE CEO

Some Conditions Proposed by Other Parties to the Merger are Unnecessary and Harmful

- Dramatic increase in renewable requirement
  - Proposal would require Exelon to build >400 megawatts of renewable energy
  - Unnecessary and would create estimated $1 billion burden to be borne by shareholders or customers
- Limitations on future growth
  - Proposals would limit potential of the combined company or require divestiture of BGE
- Rate freeze
  - Would jeopardize BGE's ability to make needed capital investments

Exelon's 25 MW renewable proposal is 5x greater than
First Energy/Allegheny commitment
